PROGRAM

9 Haiku

Michael Fiday
(b. 1961)

No.1. Culture's beginnings: rice-planting songs from the heart of the country.

No.2. Above the moor not attached to anything, a skylark singing.

No.3. This bright harvest moon keeps me walking all night long around the little pond.

No.4. Temple bells die out. The fragrant blossoms remain. A perfect evening!

No.5. The lightning flashes and slashing through the darkness, a night heron's screech.

No.6. Where's the moon? As the temple bell is sunk in the sea.

No.7. Clouds come from time to time and bring to men a chance to rest from looking at the moon.

No.8. My eyes following until the bird was lost at sea found a small island.

No.9. Sick on a journey, only my dreams will wander these desolate moors.
